The First District Pastor's Advisory Council was created to provide a forum for constituents to address issues of concern regarding parental rights, pro-life and pro-family legislation, and future challenges affecting religious liberty.