The First District Seniors Advisory Council was created to provide constituents with a discussion forum on issues of concern to the senior community. Topics such as economic security and improving the communities in which seniors live and work are some of the areas that will be addressed along with the rights of older Americans in critical areas such as health, long term care, consumer and employment situations.