

The First District Small Business Advisory Council was created to provide constituents a discussion forum on issues of concern regarding private and family owned businesses. The Council will offer small business owners an opportunity to examine how their businesses can be affected by legislative changes concerning issues such as health care, taxes, regulations, and labor. The group will be a vehicle for the exchange of information among members regarding objectives, methods and results in technical assistance, business management and advocacy involving the First District small business community.