

Peninsula Congressional Delegation Presents: Service Academy Day 2016

High school, and middle school students, parents, and educators, come join us. Attendees will have an opportunity to meet representatives from the nation's five service academies and get answers to questions about the admissions process, eligibility requirements, cadet life, academics, athletics, the honor code, and career opportunities after graduation. Representatives will also address Reserve Officer Training Corps (ROTC) scholarship application procedures. Senate and Congressional office representatives will be available to answer questions regarding respective application and timelines for Virginia residents desiring to submit nomination packages.
